My dear Mr. Muir,
Your brief visit
was a real joy for us and we shall hold you
to your promise to return.
This week our house is full but may we not expect you after that?
Mr. Marshall will not be in California this summer and Mrs Marshall father's name.

Will you write the name of the pine peculiar to this country about Inverness?

We hope for the success of your Sketch Petechy work but don't quite forget its taking you away from us so soon.

The children, seeing me with my pen, exclaim with me leaves us about the middle of August to visit old friends in San Jose.

You asked for the children's names -

Evelyn Bradford Marshall
Virginia Mann Marshall
Samuel Bradford Simmons
Elizabeth Crocker Simmons.

The Bradford in both names is of course Scotch, my
