1822 O'Farrell Street,
San Francisco,

Jan. 13, 1900.

Mr. Muir,

Dear Sir & Kind Friend:

I received to-day, (forwarded by Mrs. Swett,) the Ten dollars you have so kindly given me for a "Christmas" present. It is so generous of you, and so timely, for my means are limited, and such a present, spent carefully, a little at a time, enables me to buy things which I really need, but, which, if the means were lacking, I should be compelled to do without.

Accept my grateful thanks for your kindness, May God reward you a hundredfold, is my prayer.

"When Death's dark stream
I ferry o'er,
A time which surely shall come, —
In Heaven itself, I'll ask no more, — Than just a Highland Welcome."

As ever,
yours truly,
John Bagnall.
