

1900-03-26

Letter from C. Hart Merriam to John Muir, 1900 Mar 26.

C. Hart Merriam

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Merriam, C. Hart, "Letter from C. Hart Merriam to John Muir, 1900 Mar 26." (1900). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4255.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4255>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Washington

March 26, 1900

My dear Mr. Muir:

The contract for publishing the Harriman
Volumen has been awarded to Doubleday, Page & Co.

They are young and energetic and I am sure will do better by us than some of the older firms.

Mr. Page you know very well - formerly editor of the Atlantic.

They have begun on Burroughs' narrative and want to put the whole book in type as soon as possible.

Your article should come next to Burroughs'
but it has not yet arrived and I have a lurking fear that you have not written it. I earnestly hope you will send it at once for we all want it badly and it won't do us much good after the book is printed. Besides,

we have already selected the illustrations for the other articles and have put some of them in the hands of the reproducers. It is most important therefore that we have your list of illustrations at the earliest possible moment.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Muir and

Your daughters,
John Muir

Assem 200
C. Hart Merriam

02680

Washington, March 26, 1900.

My dear Mr. Muir:

The contract for publishing the Harriman Volumes has been awarded to Doubleday, Page & Co. They are young and energetic and I am sure will do better by us than some of the older firms. Mr. Page you know very well, formerly editor of the Atlantic.

They have begun on Burroughs narrative and want to put the whole book in type as soon as possible. Your article should come next to Burroughs, but it has not yet arrived and I have a lurking fear that you have not written it. I earnestly hope you will send it at once, for we all want it badly, and it won't do us much good after the book is printed. Besides, we have already selected the illustrations for the other articles and have put some of them in the hands of the reproducers. It is most important, therefore, that we have your list of illustrations at the earliest possible moment.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Muir and your daughters,

As ever yours,

O. Hart Merriam

02680