Martinez, June 12, 1900.

My dear Merriam,

I sent the ice M.S. today to Doubleday Page & Co. direct fearing you might be away in the field on summer work. The article is short, 3000 words or so — I hope you will see the proof. --

Grippe has only lately left me and I am so far behind with work promised Houghton Mifflin I don't know when I will be able to get into the wilderness this year.

Good luck to you --

Faithfully yours,

JOHN MUIR
