Mr. John Muir
Martinez Calif
My Dear Sir

I have just received your Book The Mountains of California, together with a Reference list of your Published Writings and Biographical Sketch, for which favors Please accept my grateful thanks Cannot your various interesting Articles Published in various Magazines and Newspapers be Compiled and Published in Book form, so as to be accessible to the general Public, I think such a Book would find ready sale and be remunerative to 02743

You both financially and still greater public fame as an interesting writer and a great lover of nature in her primitive beauties. Your writings are eagerly sought for by a large majority of the reading Public, and as they now are, in book numbers of Magazines and Papers, they are not to be seen by thousands who would be glad to read them.

With renewed thanks

Yours Sincerely
Galen Clark
