Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, California.

My dear Muir:

I believe I am indebted to you in the matter of our occasional correspondence. I always hesitate to write to you for fear of breaking in upon your literary labors on your ^{"Auto"} biography, which we are looking forward to with great expectations. I hope you will not make it necessary for me to write to Mrs. Muir on this subject. Now that you have finished up your articles for our rivals of the Atlantic, do not let yourself be distracted by any false political gods, either Brother McKinley or Brother Bryan. Each is a bad lot, and neither is likely to get any countenance from me.

Give me a cheerful word about yourself and family, and believe me always

Faithfully yours,

R. U. Johnson
Associate Editor.
