

1901-02-13

Letter from Jullia M[errill] Moores to [John Muir], 1901 Feb 13.

Jullia Merrill Moores

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Moores, Jullia Merrill, "Letter from Jullia M[errill] Moores to [John Muir], 1901 Feb 13." (1901). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4389.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4389>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Feb 13 90

1960 N. Pa. St.

My dear friend,

Janet sends by today's mail a little piece of her own handiwork. She thought perhaps Mrs Muir would be pleased by her remembrance. She was very happy in the doing of it.

Physically, she is much better;
but the voices those evil
spirits, still annoy her &
she cannot control herself
but talks much of the time.

The rest of us are tolerably well,
and hope that you & your family are in good health. I want to ask you if you might chance to have a letter or two of Sister Kates.

if you wd. be so kind as to let me have them. With love to Mrs Muir & the girls. & regretting to trouble
you.

I am yours truly
Feb. 13th 1901 Julia M. Moore

Think of Charles being 89 years old - this week! - Carl Merrill. 40!

02840