Martinez, April 9/51

My dear Lummis;

I want

one doz. copies of book.

" " " " " dog seated none jumping

Half of them "mounted", each of the ^{best} ~~best~~ ^{papers} ~~papers~~, all unwratched, on rough paper

Your fight live reminds me of the good man in job, 29th Chap. who among other benevolent things "broke" the jaws of the wicked."
and of Scotch schoolboy whose main ambition was to be
"guide fecters". My own bloody nose & black-eye battles averaged about three or four a week.

Faithfully yours
John Muir
