July 10

Mr John Muir,
Martinez.

My Dear Sir: I hope you will pardon the liberty I take if I ask you if I may have the privilege of a very brief interview with you. For many years I have been one of your admirers, and now I desire to ask for a contribution to a new eastern high-class magazine of which I have been asked to be editor. For the summer I am giving instruction in nature-study in the University here. I should be glad to run down to Martinez over one train or to meet you in the city, in case you are to be there between now and Aug. 7. My week-end days, however, are all engaged for excursions.

Yours truly

L. H. Bailey
