Dear Mama,

We reached here yesterday, at three o'clock, and are having a very lovely time you just ought to see Papa! last night he ate three suppers first a fine trout then soup, meat and bread with the rest of the people and then some one invited him to eat more trout, and he accepted, says he feels fine.

The driver who brought us in here is going back now, so I thought I would send a P.S. now, and a real letter later.

With love

Helena
