glad I am to speak on forestry at Denver, the August snow storm he & I enjoyed in Tuolumne meadows

Martinez Aug. 16/01

My dear Mr Lukens.

I am glad to see that you are to be one of the speakers on forestry affairs at Denver this month.
Good luck to you.

I have just returned from the Tuolumne Meadows & the Sierra Club outing. About 125 were gathered around the camp fire & we had a grand time. Would that you had been with us. I often spoke of the fine August snowstorm we enjoyed during my visit with you & the Crows.

The cone you sent me while I was away is a small immature specimen of the Sabine pine.

With kind regards to Mrs Lukens, Mrs Jones & the children I am ever yours
John Muir
