I could get 3 or 4
large and very fine
pictures of California mountain scenery, I wish you would refer me to the parties.
An article a little
shorter, perhaps, than your recent paper in the Atlantic, would suit us.

Yours most truly

My Dear Sir: I am most glad of your letter of the 17th. I was sorry to have missed
you.

For Country Life,
which I am to edit,
I want an article
from you on the
"Mountains of California", or something
of that kind, although it ^{C 27} might not be well to follow

too closely the title of your book. The second issue of Country Life is to be devoted to California. It will be dated January, 1902,
and will be on sale
in December. We should have the article Oct. 15.

Insert your best
— one of your clear,
ringing, soulful descriptions. If you know where
