(73) Martinez, Nov. 17, 1901,

My dear Johnson.

Since the Park & Reservation book was off my hands I have been looking over my Yosemite stuff & planning the Yosemite book we spoke of years ago. Possibly some of the new chapters I'll have to write may be worthy a place in the Century.

I'll go to San Francisco in a day or two & look over Robinson's sketches, photos etc & report to you.

Of course the January earthquake was heard & felt here & I often thought of you & feared I saw

You in the thick of the battle. Well done Huraka How glad Roosevelt must be. I am told he is a great friend of the forests & so I am hoping to see a great extension of the Civil Service rules in the management of the reserves.

I'm glad to learn that Owen is going bravely ahead, Good luck to him with all my heart.

As for the Autobiography you, Houghton Mifflin & other publishers have so much to say about. Not a word of it has been written.

We are all well. Wanda is at the State University. I ordered a copy of my park book sent you - hope you'll like it Ever cordially yours
John Muir
