Dear Mama

I went to the opera last night with Mrs Pitcher to hear the Maistersinger and enjoyed it wonderfully, the grandest where Gadski, Shumann-Hick, De Reszki, Bishpan and Dippel all sing is marvelous (I fear these people would hardly know these names the way I've spelled them) I do wish that you could hear some of it, - couldn't you come down for Monday's Matinee? I couldn't go with you but that wouldn't matter. I suppose you have heard from the papers how good Mrs Hearst is being to us about music, I went to the Damrosch recital this afternoon, it was delightful and we all went almost crazy. 09184 and better still I am going to hear Shumann-Hick and Bishpan sing Monday afternoon, and it is all free you know. I am not going to hear Carmen tonight - a I expected for Calve is not going to sing and Tallulah and I were both too sleepy to stay up so late unless it were something very exceptionally good.

I got home at 2 A.M. this morning, went up to college at 9 and had an awful English test I guess I got through alright - but it wasn't exactly pleasant.

I saw Miss Eastwood at the opera last night - and she said that she could not come up Thanksgiving, have you invited the folks over for dinner then.

I hope there won't be any other company then for I want to rest, sleep and calm down a little after all this rush and excitement.

I will be home Wednesday night at the usual time.

Time to go to bed, Good night

With love

Wannie
