The Berkeley Shadow will be very much appreciated -

And as Hattie sent me her husband's Photo & Allen's I will suggest she sends you the same one, a very good one I think, and an excellent

Respectfully Yours

And a generous quantity to yourself, my dear

Alameda
December

Dear Mr. Vanier

I think you for an apology for not later acknowledging the receipt of the volume of four invaluable books on California Birds -

I began writing of its safety in arrival, but was at this time interrupted by a surprise with a gift of one Tassie for a pass from San Francisco to Oakland Oregon and a return fare to Mendocino -

So I put aside all

After business I make such plans for myself that I might visit her and visit my daughters, in Blaine.

Jessie goes as far as Seattle in this fall, while I remain in Blaine until Jessie returns from her Seattle errand, which is to attend An Anniversary event of a "Golden Wedding" of my sister Ellen with three marriageable daughters.

This is a journey spot will give Jessie a headache and she change

I thank you for the correction of the year when Ladies were admitted.

into College Hall
Do you not think it a great point gained for girls, it was not a popular move among the said Presbyterian body not favourable to Co-education Am I right in saying that several years passed before Men were admitted among ladies to the University Classes?

I fear I have trespassed upon your time and patience.

But if I remind you of your keeping in mind my
"The Ladies Story" you will not refuse, will you?

I have reminded one matter of your regret for our family photos and your daughters
