as to Mrs. Carr's treatment in last days

Washington, Dec. 18, 1901

Dear Mr. Lukens

I was shocked by the news in your last letter as to the treatment of poor Mrs. Carr by her keeper. I thought of going at once to see her legal guardian. But since I knew no one in Templeton I felt I could not be useful in finding a proper keeper. Surely the guardian can have no difficulty in doing this duty.

I hope the news is not true or at least it will prove greatly exaggerated. Anyhow she must be faithfully cared for & supplied with every comfort she requires. Let me know as soon as possible the facts of the case & what is needed that I can supply, & greatly oblige
Your friend John Min
