Stanford,

Dec. 20 - 1901.

My dear Muir:

Please accept
my sincere thanks for your very kind remembrance. I shall read the book as I read everything of
yours with the pleasure one gets from the "real thing" in literature or science.

I have long meant to visit you at Martinez -
long meant to insist on your visiting me

here. Can you not come soon? I want
ask you to lecture.

Cordially yours.

David S. Jordan
