Dr. Winer, -

My precious brother,

A few days ago I received a letter from Jessie - telling of your sickness - She states that you are slowly recovering - I am glad indeed to know this - but so sorry that you have been caused such great suffer.

-ing. I shall be very anxious to hear again.
You have been much in my mind these days. But I am hoping that full recovery will come to you and come soon.

I hear that Emma is some improved in health.
I am glad to know this.
Heaven bless you both,
and may the New Year
have much in store for you - that is rich and good.

You and I are some alike as to letter writing
- but we love each other just the same - don't we?

Love to you my brother - and love to all your family.

'A Happy New Year -
to you all.

Lovingly,

Sister Mary.
