[1901]

Mr. E. Henry Harriman,
1 E. 55th Street,
New York.

Dear Mr. H[arriman]:

I heartily thank you for a copy of your magnificent Alaska book and 5 copies of my sketch of the glaciers. The introductory volumes of general interest are truly magnificent, and with the scientific volumes to follow will make a valuable contribution to our knowledge of Alaska, afford pleasure and instruction, and spread world-wide the fame of the H.A. E. [Harriman Alaskan Expedition].

Never before has the wonderful Alaskan Coast been so superbly illustrated.

With kindest regards and a crowd of pleasant recollections,
I am, my dear Sir,

Faithfully yours,

J. M.
