

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1902-01-05

Letter from Mary Barr Munroe to John Muir, 1902 Jan 5.

Mary Barr Munroe

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Munroe, Mary Barr, "Letter from Mary Barr Munroe to John Muir, 1902 Jan 5." (1902). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4556.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4556>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

<sup>C 43</sup>
In my "Every day book," that I was privileged to write and thank you for your remembrance on this day.
Most Sincerely
Mary Ann Munroe.

Cocoanut Grove,
Vade County,
Florida.

<sup>C 13</sup>
January 5th 1902.
"The Sorububs"
Dear John Muir. I wish you could know
how surprised and delighted I am here at your remembrance of us. I am just as proud as can be of the book, and the Autograph. I have thought of you, and that never to be forgotten afternoon when we met, and I have never forgotten how beautifully you talked.

I do hope it may be my

real good luck, to meet you again. And if you should ever come to this little home of ours again,
 I shall not let you go

so soon, please accept
 my most sincere thanks and admiration, and be sure they will stay very often to "Martinez" as I read "Our National Parks".
 I have put off writing.
 (although I received the book
 5 days ago) until today
 because today I am fifty years old, and I wanted to make a record