Dear Mr Kip; I am delighted to hear from you & to learn that all the children, second & third growth are well & happy.

I thank you for your invitation to visit you. I would be very glad to do so the very first chance I have. Though in civilization
I'm a bewildered tender foot & always sadly in need of a guide.

Your letter brings back the good bright Alaska days with your family & the Osborns

Hoping we may again see some of God's wildness together

I am ever faithfully yours
John Muir
