My dear Sellers;

I am just back now from a ten days trip to the Grand Cañon of the Colorado & in the pile of letters awaiting me on my desk none was read more eagerly than yours, for I had not heard a word since you went to your Wis Club house seeking health & rest for Mrs. Sellers. And what a time you have had!
Accidents, paralysis, pneumonia, bronchitis. As soon as you are able to travel you must all come here to stay. At the Grand Canon I watched the arrivals at the hotel every night - hoping to see you among the crowd on the way to California. Come on & build a cottage on our ranch & see how Jim these P.M. days of life may be made Keith is still painting - good pictures making about $35,000 a year - financially glorious & semi-famous I shall keep on hoping to see you soon & ever Ever faithfully yours

John Muir.
