

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1902-04-05

Letter from Emily Wilson to John Muir, 1902 Apr 5.

Emily Wilson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Wilson, Emily, "Letter from Emily Wilson to John Muir, 1902 Apr 5." (1902). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4639.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4639>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

April 5th 1902.
593 Lyncamore, Oakland

John Muir, Mastering.
Dear John.

It is rather late to acknowledge the receipt of the two books which came Thursday

The Gaskills only came in yesterday and were delighted to receive one. Mrs Drake is over the Bay with friends for a few days and I will keep here until she comes back to finish her visit here. She will not go to her home (in Strawberry Valley) for a month or more.

Es hoping Emeline Knox will meet her here as the

the former is our best way East to Mrs Illinois home, from Paradise
Thanks my friend for your words of sympathy and kindness, they touch my heart and stir up old memories of the days when surrounded by friends and relatives I was free from care and worry -

When you come again I want to show you a picture of Fannie, I think it will look natural to you -

I have not thought that Dr. Wilson will ever be able to get as far as your home but thanks all the same for your kind wish. He seems more feeble than usual the part few days - owing to cold he has taken hoping we may see you soon again. Yours strictly yours. Emeline