Dear Agnes:

Keep this in your archives.

Affectionately

Martinez Apr. 15 1902

R. U. J.¹

My dear Johnson

I have heard nothing of buried city Guess its April fool.

The Canon is a huge thing to write about, & the end of my poor article is not yet in sight--

As to Yosemite recession most everybody believes in it but politicians hang on to the patronage connected with it like grim death. But I'll try to see what can be done. I suppose the legislature meets next winter--Grandfather congratulations well may you brag--Your son in law I suppose makes you equal to a great grandfather--One of the finest fellows you ever know! etc etc--But for a' that & a' that I say Agnes is fine enough for the finest of them all.

When are you coming hither & Alaska way--not I suppose until multiplication goes on as far as a car load

Remember me to Mrs Johnson. Good luck to the Holdens,

Ever Yours,

John Muir
