MCCLURE'S MAGAZINE,
141-155 EAST TWENTY-FIFTH ST.
NEW YORK.

April 30th, 1902.

John Muir, Esq.,
Martinez, Cal.

My dear Mr. Muir:-

We herewith send you proofs of some of the illustrations for your article. Won't you be good enough to write sub-captions which will make more definite your connection with the things they represent? For instance, the different mountain peaks, if you could give us the date when you first saw them, or the years you lived near them, or whatever is of interest in regard to them, it would add much to their value as illustrations.

I think we shall probably use this article in July, so won't you be good enough to return the proofs with your captions at your very earliest convenience?

Believe me,

Sincerely yours,

Ray S. Baker
