The Examiner
San Francisco

May 1, 1902.

Dear Mrs. Muir:

Mrs. Millard and I thank you beautifully for your botanical information and for the photographs. To us, always interested in such matters, they were very ~~pleasant~~ pleasing and valuable. It will be a long time before we forget your visit to our Cañon. Set it not be the least. Remember that Muir day is every and all days with us.

You saw the ceanothus blooms at their best. Satisfied with your inspection and honored by it, they are now passing gradually away.
With regards to Mrs. Muir and the young ladies. I am Sincerely yours
Millard.
