Dear Dr. Merriam,

We are all glad you're coming, no matter being a little late. Possibly I'll wait and go with you by way of Visalia and Grant Forest. Of course you will make our ranch headquarters.

I lunched at Berkeley the other day with Pres. Wheeler and the Harrimans. Had pleasant time. Thanks for your kind invitation to your Washington home. How gladly it would be accepted were it not so continentally far and I so stupidly busy, you very well know. But the visit shall be made some of these days and the length of it may astonish you. Remember us to the Baileys and Mrs. Merriam, Miss Kathburn and the children.

Ever yours,

JOHN MUIR
