Berkeley Sunday Evening

Dear Mama

I know I'm awful not to have written before, but I really have not had one free minute the whole week. I've had lots of work to do but - have not had time to hurt myself in that direction because of the multitudinous variety of other things that have been going on. Our own party was very nice and in every way a success and I also had a very good time last night at Miss Trade's, a much better time than I ever had when I lived there. Miss Ransom was quite amiable & what do you think? She is going with the Club to Kings River this summer. Who would have thought it!

Please send me my Sverre Club ballot - when it comes as it will have to be returned before I go home.

The U.C. Circus was yesterday & everybody enjoyed themselves very much indeed. It seemed funny to see strange looking bandits, clowns, acrobats & marvelous ballet girls, all of whom nevertheless had a strangely familiar look & who bowed in a friendly way when you met them. One of the ballet girls forgot that she was not a man when he met us & attempted to take of his hat, but looked rather foolish when he found ^{he had on} only a curly blond wig and everyone laughed.

Last Wednesday I was on the election committee for associated students & had an exciting time looking up names & counting ballots.

I'm going to have my picture taken tomorrow.

I'm out of cash again, if you send me about $25 I think it will last till the end of the term.

I must do a lot of reading yet - this evening. Good night

Lovingly
Panda
