My dear Mr. Muir,

Mr. Gannett insists that I must send you this picture of the "Siamese Twins"; I hope you will enjoy it as much as he did! I send also the picture of the log that last morning of your stay in King's.

Mr. Gannett's accounts of the Kern trip made me grieve even more than before - if that is possible - that I couldn't be with you; and Helen & Ellie's tales, when I see them, will doubtless be equally glowing. What a perfect time you must have had.

I was exceedingly disappointed at having the two pictures I took of you at the Giant Forest turn out to be underexposed.

Please remember me to your daughters.

With warm regards to yourself,

I am yours sincerely,
Marion Delany.

Next time you go off with my girls - Marian & Ellie & Helen - I am to go too!!
