[4] I am most grateful to Mr. Johnson for his writing you, for I had hoped not to leave California again
without seeing you.

I am
most respectfully

(Mrs. Richard Walton Tully)

John Muir Esq.,

that he has written

you of me and that he wishes me
 to meet you very much. I shall be most honored to do so, and should like very much to know when I can either see you at

your Martinez home,
 or in San Francisco.
 Should you be coming to town soon,
 I should like extremely to have you
 lunch with Mr.
 Tully and me at the Palace.
