very kindly ^[37] to Mrs Muir and the girls. I look back on my visit to you with such great pleasure.

Very sincerely yours,
Marion Delany.

My dear Mr. Muir,

I have printed for you some of the photographs I took in King's River Cañon — the selection is not a very diversified one, as I didn't go over to Keeweenaw Pass, let alone the Kern River. And this is the first time I have attempted to print in color on a wide mat, so they are somewhat speckled. Such as they are, they go to you with my warm regards.

I have ^[23] put with them a photograph which I took last summer in the Hotel Hotel, which seems to me very pretty.

The picture of the sequoias at the Giant Forest I have labelled "the great woods of Heaven" - a name given to the Big Trees by a dear wee Californian boy who has lived in England since he was a baby, but remains ardently loyal to California. Isn't it a pretty name?

Will you remember me
