

John Muir Correspondence \(PDFs\)

---

1902-10-17

Letter from Cornelius B. Bradley to John Muir, 1902 Oct 17.

Cornelius B. Bradley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Bradley, Cornelius B., "Letter from Cornelius B. Bradley to John Muir, 1902 Oct 17." (1902). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4756.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4756>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Berkeley, Oct. 17, 1902.

Dear Mr. Mair,

Thanks most sincerely for the sweet proof which came yesterday of your continued remembrance of us. The grapes came in excellent condition, and were fit to have been the grapes of Eschol - only I am sure those never could have had the flavor of these. But chief of all the elements in their bouquet is the flavor of friendship; - and that is daily becoming to me more and more the most precious thing in the world.

I have been reading your book aloud to my folks, and to their great delight. Especially pleased and interested was my cousin (who has recently left us) - who had just taken a trip in the Yellowstone Park, and who could verify what you wrote.

03077

Mrs. Bradley joins me in love and thanks to Mrs. Muir and yourself.

Very sincerely yours,

Cornelius B. Bradley.