Mr. Chas. L. Biedenbach,
Berkeley, Cal.

Dear Mr. Biedenbach;

I thank you heartily for your kind and flattering letter of the 12th. If any thing could draw me out of my winter den, it would be an Arbor Day celebration; But as yet I can see no opening through the midst of my many literary engagements, and of course cannot promise to be with you.

As to the tree you propose to plant, the two Sequoias are favorites of mine. The sempervirens would, I think be most likely to thrive at Berkeley.

Thanking you for the honor you propose, wishing you a good time and regretting I cannot be with you,

I am Sincerely Yours

John Muir
