

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1902-11-01

Letter from [John Muir] to [C. L.] Biedenback, [1902 Nov].

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from [John Muir] to [C. L.] Biedenback, [1902 Nov]." (1902). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4786.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4786>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Dear Mr Biederbach

Rest assured I shall be with you December 1st if I can possibly find a way through the confounded ^{tangles of} obligations that holds me here. But I see no opening ^{however} as yet, or anything that promises one. therefore, much as it distresses me to seem wanting in appreciation of the kindness & honor of your invitation, I must warn you not to count on me. After escaping ^{the common} dangers of the wilderness these kind invitations & honors of civilization are like to be the death of me; for from some ^{mysterious} strange cause they come flying about one thick ^{with} as snowflakes & give ^{no} end of sore trouble in trying to explain a poor wanderer's ^{woeful} inability.

to accept them.

Faithfully Yours

Mr A. H. Payson
San Francisco

Dear Sir: -

My studies, ^{next year} will probably call me again to the Grand Canon, the Petrified Forest of Arizona, the Yucca & Cactus groves, ~~etc~~ at their times of bloom etc, etc ~~some of the ancient cities~~ etc along the Santa Fe lines. I would therefore respectfully request an annual pass.

Will you kindly forward this request to its proper place & believe ^{to be} me, Faithfully yours