The Mormon Choir sing, and enjoyed hearing them more than any thing I've been to for a long time, they are all wonderful singers and to hear 15-0 such well trained voices together is magnificent.

Yesterday evening we had a jolly masquerade (just gals) here at the house and I was a goat; my costume consisted of a sheet - and by the time I had applied a little burnt-cork around my eyes and eyebrows, and a liberal dose of flour and let my newly washed hair fly I looked like the shade of the wildest Slavonic anarchist you ever dreamed of. I didn't know my face had such force possibilities
