Dear Mama -

I reached here safely this evening, even earlier than usual, we had a stuck train that went faster than the regular overland as it - was lighter and did not - have much baggage to load or the boat - so I got - the six Berkeley boat - instead of the half past - as I usually do and got here before it was really dark. The bay was calm and beautiful and no one would have thought to look at it that it had danced so madly only last night.

One of our windows was blown out but there was no other damage done.

The girls are enjoying the fudge I brought down

Tell Helen that the San Pablo doesn't seem to have even a scratch but - all the other boats look delapidated Point Richmond has a decidedly cyclonic appearance, with blowing down houses & etc -
Good night
