We are still here at mother's, waiting for Walter to accomplish his R. R. and Trust Co. work at Philadelphia. He has had many discouragements and many unforeseen difficulties to contend with but he remains undaunt-ed and says he must
 and will succeed. He made a flying trip to N.C. last week, arriving there in the morning
 and returning to Phila.
 in the evening of the same day. He went to the house which is still closed and
 reports everything undisturbed.

Dearest brother John's

Your long letter to Annie which came this morning, and which I have had the pleasure and pain
 of reading, gives us
 too clear an idea
 of the much work,
 physical and mental
 and no play, which is yours at present.
