ARDEN, NEW YORK

Dear Mr. Miller - if you were but here at this moment - the poem would charm & soothe you I am sure - even after the glories of Oregon or recently seen - you have been most faithful to the memory of the Pleasant Lodge Days & the conversations you have lent us have been

Coming in a Constant Stream in a most flattering way, assuring us of your devoted thoughts of us + our happy Rayonnes together in that beautiful Camp.
Two sketches from the French for the girls give us color pictures While your writings give us the same pictures that I especially delight in - I have from two books + that I did wrote to exchange Copies of Barnes with you - It is such a delightful one this you have chosen for me - with the picture of Helen included - we are hoping you will come soon yourself - you can always take refuge from the winds of New York at Baden where Nature reigns supreme still - very lovely nature, now in the Autumn robes of <sup>glorious</sup> ~~marvellous~~

of which you may remember "we drank Copiously" still show their good effects on the Harminian family & the memories of my pleasant intercourse with you there was always bright & cheer & gladden us - very faithfully yours
Wm. Harminian
