Los Angeles,

July 30, 1910 -

Dear Mrs Coolbritt

I have sent by Today's mail copies
of my three books
to which I hope will help to cheer some weary hours & bring back to mind the days of old Larry yours. It hard to realize the pain of fire losses in the
way of church
keepers I'm down here trying to work hard on another

book & so forget
or wear out the pain of recent troubles, or at least make the
worst of it tolerable
As for talks to clubs they are all
out of my reach,
I'm too old to learn
now. Surely my burdens are heavy enough without
addition of work of any sort. I'm sure you'll excuse
Ever faithfully John Muir
