January 5, 1910.

Dear Mr. Muir,

It is a pleasure to receive, in an envelope bearing your corner-card, the very able pamphlet dealing with the matter of the Hetch-Hetchy Valley. That is a matter in which I have a very keen interest.

By the way, isn't there a manuscript of yours dealing with a trip through the Yosemite many years ago that we had some correspondence about with a view to fall publication? This would be a particularly timely season for such a book, and it is one that we should heartily welcome.

Sincerely yours,

John Muir
