I am sending by same mail a pamphlet which touches a little on forests.

My dear Mr Muir,

It was a great pleasure to receive your circular about the Hetch-Hetchy Valley, and thus to know that you are well and still busy in your good work. I often think of our trip together through your mountain regions on the Pacific Coast, and wish that fate might bring us together again. Last summer I dined with Prof Sargent at his home, and met Brewer at New Haven; both were well, as I am myself. Hague I have not seen for several months, and Pinchot not for years. He is having a lively fight recently, and I hardly think he is getting the best of it. I wish we were near enough to meet often, but you may be sure that all the good wishes of the season are coming to you from

Your old friend,

Henry L. Abbott
