

1910-01-13

Letter from Hattie Allen Ray to John Muir, 1910 Jan 13.

Hattie Allen Ray

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Ray, Hattie Allen, "Letter from Hattie Allen Ray to John Muir, 1910 Jan 13." (1910). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4918.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4918>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

2146 San Antonio Ave,
Clameda, Cal.,

Jan 13, 1910

Dear Mr. Muir, -

Ever since Christmas
I have been intending to write you and among other things wish you a happy New Year from the Ray family.

Allen had a present of a little book which is very dear to his heart. Jessie sent it to him from Honolulu &
it is "Stickeen" by John Muir.
Allen read it aloud to me and we both enjoyed it highly.
It was queer to hear

Allen (13 years²³ old) says
"Mamma, isn't that told pretty. You can just see that storm."

I am going to have it read aloud on next Wednesday at our little reading club and I am going to try to find some other short article on glaciers to read the same day.

I wonder if you can give me
a pointer on a good article.
I have not been to the library
yet to look it up but I shall probably find one easily. The first place shall look ^[3] will be in your "Mountains of California"

I so often think of you & speak of you & wish you would come over to Alameda some day to see us.

But Mr. Ray says when you come in the bank
you are usually in a hurry & get back home.

With best wishes to you
& yours for 1910

I am

Very sincerely

Hattie Allen Ray.

04681