SCOTS DINE ON REAL "HAGGIS."

Burns Memorial and Anniversary of Men's Club Celebrated at Fourth Presbyterian Church.

A "haggis" headed the bill of fare at a dinner of 500 Scots at the Fourth Presbyterian church last evening followed by oat cakes, mealy pudding, and other strictly Caledonian dishes. Some present confessed ignorance of what a "haggis" really was, but that made no difference.

"Made no difference!"
Good Lordy! Think of that!
Then what would make a difference to these degenerate Scots who talk about "mealy pudding"
and are ignorant of haggis — "Great chieftain
o' the puddin' race"!
I wad wish a heidle were i' their doup!
