

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1910-01-26

Letter from Florence Merriam Bailey to John Muir, 1910 Jan 26.

Florence Merriam Bailey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Bailey, Florence Merriam, "Letter from Florence Merriam Bailey to John Muir, 1910 Jan 26." (1910). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4930.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4930>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

not heard from her; I
do not know whether it
reached her.

Mr. Bailey gave me Sturtevant
for Christmas and we enjoyed reading it aloud, thinking of the campfire in the Sierra
where you told us the story.

How we did enjoy your
singing with us!

C17

1834 KALORAMA ROAD,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

January 26, 1910.

My dear Mr. Meier:

"Another box of nuts and raisins from Mr. Meier!"
was the announcement again
this year.

Don't you think you are too
good to us?

Men friends drop in of an evening, before they go to gather around our wood fire and have a feast. Such beautiful white nuts! - such as we never see here.

Mr. Bailey was in the full June months this year - mostly in Montana and Oregon. He had a day in San Francisco, and said the thing he wanted to do next, was to go and see you; but he could not, then.

How I wish you would come east and see us all!

Some time ago I sent Helen - by way of Houghton, Mifflin - Stedman's Anthology, alluding it to Daggett. As I have

We are enjoying his articles in Scribner.

The museum here is getting
a remarkable collection.

Once more, let me thank you for the California nuts
and raisins - for them
themselves, and for the

memories they bring of
big campfires and
glorious mountains
made doubly glorious by
your presence.

Mr. Bailey would
send his warmest greetings
were he in.

Do give my love to Wanda

and Helen.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas Merriam Bailey
I'll send to send list of
trees etc he wants

Dearling Helen

I got home at 7. AM
Saturday. Found all
well except Maggie
who has the grippe
but is getting better
If you have not written to Mrs
Bailey do so ever yours

1834 KALORAMA ROAD,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

It was glad to hear that you had a trip to the Yosemite
this year, and that Mr. Saff
had some one to show him
the glories.

It is good that Mr. Roosevelt is having such a big rest -
and that he will be home soon.