My dear Mr. Minns:

Thank you warmly for the little book which arrived to-day, & which has the added value of your kind autograph.
And thank you also for your letter.
"Sticker" is, in my humble judgment, a rare piece of prose, vital with the vitality of all immortal literature.
Why did not the publishers do it up in a richer dress? It ought to go in the catalogue with all those little masterpieces that we love to handle in velvet calf or vellum - With many thanks again, Yrs Sincerely Elizabeth Parker
