March 23, 1910.

Dear Mr. Muir,

Thank you for your letter of March 16th. We are very glad indeed to know that we may expect the manuscript of the Sie Journal by the end of April.

About the check due January 1st--haven't you, perhaps, confused this with some other? For we find from our record at the Press that this check was duly sent on the date in question, and that it has been returned with your endorsement and that of the Bank of Martinez, California, per Hale, Cashier.

Faithfully yours,

W. W. Smith, Esq.
