Washington D.C. 1 May 1910.

My dear Mr Muir,

I write to say that my son Col. Abbot has been transferred from here to take direction of the Boston district, and that my address hereafter will be 23 Berkeley<sup>y</sup> Street, Cambridge Mass. in case you should have occasion to write.

I saw Brewer and Hague at the National Academy meeting week before last, and shall soon see Sargent. I wish you were this side of the Rockies too.

Very truly yours,

Henry L. Abbot

Was glad to have yours of 14th ult. The Ballenger-Pinchot fight goes on actively.
