Dear John Muir:

Do you remember that you are an Honorary Member of the "Pacific Coast-Women's Press Association", founded by Emily G. Smith Parkhurst? I have been made, entirely against my will, its President for the current year. During my administration I want to leave the members given things to remember always, and I venture

John, and our days are no longer many.

I hope that health is with you all. God bless you.

Sue Corbitt

to ask you if you will honor us with a "me bit" talk. Our Club is now in vacation and does not reconvene
till the 12th. of September. Our meetings are on the 2^d. & 4th. Mondays of the month.
If you will notify me
of your consent I will lay it before the Board and you will be sent dates from which you can choose according to your wish and convenience.

Personally, this would be a great joy to me,
for we are "growing and."
