Dear Mr Muir,

We are worried about you. Have inquired several times whether you had returned to Los Angeles & each time have heard that you had not returned. Are fearful that you have overworked and are ill. Let us hear from you. Mrs Sellers niece came from Chicago about 10 days ago, and we are leaving today for Riverside to be gone a few days, wish you was here to go with us.

Mrs Sellers joins in kind regards and hopes that we are unnecessarily alarmed about you.

Yours sincerely
H. H. Sellers
