I have not seen Mary yet but she expects to come to Lincoln soon and if she does not I will go to see her -

Hoping to hear good news about Margaret and that all the other members of the family are well I am

Affectionately yours

Dear Brother John: -
We have been waiting patiently to hear from Aunt Waterman concerning her sister but as far as we know has come - Please let us know exactly how Margaret is as the suspense is hard to bear. You will have heard that we came to

04800

Lincoln, two weeks ago and intend remaining here for some time, at least through the Summer, and then we will determine what is best to do. The malarial finally drove us away from our pleasant home for Bernice had a very bad spell with her stomach and her father consented at last for us to make a change to see if that would help her.

Beattie joined us here in Lincoln, but Ethel and her father are still South - Dr. Lyle Fibry has, as far as Dr. Lyle thinks he can help Bernice and I sincerely hope with the aid of the climate he may be able to do all he hopes.
The weather is becoming very warm now but it has been unusually cool up to this time -
